Nike

My role at Nike as a Sales Associate would consist of various tasks within each department I worked in. Departments I worked in were men's and women's apparel, footwear, cashier and shipping and receiving. Providing customer service to meet the needs of consumers was my main goal.

Ricky Joy Company

As the Administrative Assistant to the CEO and President of the company, I would communicate with other administrative members about the monthly inventory counts I had reported. Inventory reports were done monthly, Expense reports were done weekly. Ship marketing material along with product samples to different individuals. Working with the marketing team to organize and carry out promotional events.

Education
