

Project Compliance Checklist for New Researchers

The following components are inclusive of different protocols and approvals required before research on campus can begin. Not all will apply to every research project. If you have any questions about applicability to your research, you can reach out to the related office.

RESEARCH COMPLIANCE

- RESPONSIBLE CONDUCT OF RESEARCH: If your research is funded by the National Science Foundation or specific grant mechanisms under the umbrella of the Department of Health and Human Services (including the National Institutes of Health), the specific project personnel must receive RCR training. For more information, see <https://research.kennesaw.edu/compliance/responsibleconduct.php>.
- CONFLICT OF INTEREST: (COI) Generally funded projects (and some foundation funded projects) require training and 2) annual disclosure of investigator conflicts of interest. For more information on policies and procedures, see <https://research.kennesaw.edu/compliance/coi.php>
- EXPORT CONTROLS: Export control issues come into play. TJ ET Q q 0.00000912 0 612 792 re W* n BT /F1 1
